An Introduction to Amicus Briefs Including a Presentation on the North Carolina Court of Appeals

Thursday, April 27, 2023

9:00 a.m. (Pacific)

10:00 a.m. (Mountain)

11:00 a.m. (Central)

12:00 p.m. (Eastern)

In this webinar, Ross Greene, J.D., SR/WA, an attorney with Pender & Coward's Eminent Domain/Right of Way Practice Group, will discuss how entities such as the IRWA can participate in appellate cases through what is known as an amicus brief. He will review the history and function of amicus briefs by way of background and discuss the specifics of a recent amicus brief filed on behalf of IRWA in a case in the North Carolina Court of Appeals, which involves the finality of settlements in right of way cases.

Speaker:

D. Rossen S. Greene, J.D., SR/WA, is a shareholder at Pender & Coward and the chair of the firm's Right of Way/Eminent Domain Practice Group. He focuses his practice in the areas of eminent domain, real estate, wills, trusts, estates and business matters. In his right of way practice, Ross represents condemning authorities, including state government agencies, utilities, municipalities and right of way consultants. His practice includes litigation in state and federal courts regarding property valuation, eminent domain, condemnation, inverse condemnation and the Uniform Relocation Act. Ross is also the vice chair for IRWA Region 4.
